Scripture About Love

If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. If I give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames, but have not love, I gain nothing. Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails.

1 Corinthians 13:1-8

The Legend of Saint Valentine

*The story of Saint Valentine is a legend, it is true.
But legends are delightful and very lovely, too.
The legend says Saint Valentine, imprisoned in a cell,
Was thinking of his little flock, he had always loved so well.
He wanted to assure them of his friendship and his love,
So he picked a bunch of violets and sent them by a dove.
And on the violet's velvet leaves, he pierced these lines divine...
They simply said "I LOVE YOU and I'm your Valentine."
So through the years that followed, from that day unto this,
Folks still send messages of love and seal them with a kiss.
Because a Saint in prison, Reached outside his bars one day
And picked a bunch of violets and sent them out to say
That Faith and Love can triumph, no matter where you are,
For Faith and Love are greater than the strongest prison bar.
author ~ Helen Steiner Rice*

Dearest Father,

Every day we see images of love. Every day we think, hear or speak of love.. In reality, do we seek to live a life of scriptural love? Do we reach out to others in selfless love? Do we model Christ's love to our children? According to scripture, without love... 'I am nothing', without love... 'I gain nothing', without love... I might as well be a 'clanging cymbal'. Please help us to know, everything we say or do, must be done in love, or it meaningless. Please fill our hearts with love so profound that all who encounter us will want to know more about You. In love, we pray. Amen
