Weekly Prayer Tip

God's Word for you this week

"But I, by your great mercy, will come into your house; in reverence will I bow down toward your holy temple." (Ps.5:7)

Prayer for this week

"My Father, I know that it is only by your great mercy that I am able to come to dwell in your house this day. There is nothing within me that is acceptable to you by myself. It is only through Jesus that I am found acceptable in your sight and counted worthy to dwell in your house. So, now, in acknowledgement of your great grace given through Jesus Christ, I bow before you in worship and adoration within the safety of your dwelling place."

Reading for this week

"God's program for reviving His people is definite and clear. First Elijah "repaired the altar of Jehovah that was thrown down." That is the place to begin. All the ruin that sin has wrought must be cleared away by confession. Things must be made right with God; restitution must be made where it is due. Unless this is done definitely and thoroughly, prayer for reviving is vain...Too many are praying today without repairing the altar by confession of sin, without digging a trench of separation from the world and without a surrender that is even unto death. No wonder such prayer is fruitless."
