8:30 AM Worship Service

Welcome to Uplift! We're glad you're here today! If you're hungry and here before worship, help yourself to a breakfast snack in the fellowship hall. One of our Uplift Team members can point you in the right direction. If you are our guest today, we have an Uplift guest card in the pew pocket for you to complete. For your small children a nursery is provided and is located through the right front sanctuary door. Hearing assistance devices are also available from our Uplift greeting team. We welcome you and look forward to worshipping with you today. We invite you to enter into worship just as you are. Now is the time to worship!

Weekly Prayer Tip

God's Word for you this week

"I love the house where you live, O Lord, the place where your glory dwells."
(Ps. 26:8)

Prayer for this week

"I agree today with David...I love your house Lord. I love your house because it is where you are. I always want to be where you are. Thank you for the awesome privilege of being where your glory dwells today. Awaken me from my spiritual sleepiness that I might truly experience your glory this day."

Reading for this week

"Revival and change are almost synonymous terms and both clearly cut across traditionalism. There is no way true revival can occur without major changes disrupting and reordering the life of the Church... God is no traditionalist. While God is orderly, He is always fresh and vital. If a church can run according to forms and traditions of men, it will run without the presence and power of God ... Is it any wonder the love of tradition is an enemy to revival? Revival and new life go hand in hand ... Let every church realize that the inordinate love of tradition is a great opponent to revival ... When a church slays the love of tradition, a major obstacle to revival will be slain with it."
