VOLUME XXVIII No. 14 JULY 16—AUGUST 5, 2010

The Pastor Search Committee (PSC) met on Thursday, July 1 and 8, and began the planning necessary for calling our next pastor. Part of that process includes the profile developed during the town hall meetings and the "Pastoral Leadership Expectations Survey" which you will be receiving within the next week. Your input through this survey is vital, as it is the final piece of the pastoral profile. Please prayerfully complete the items as described in the cover letter that will accompany the questionnaire.

PASTOR
 Search Committee

Following the receipt of the "Pastoral Leadership Expectations Survey," the Committee can then finalize the qualifications for the next pastor and begin advertising the position. We will keep you informed as we progress.

Sunday, August 1, at 11 a.m. has been set for the Commissioning Service for the PSC. At that time, the Transition Team will present its body of work to the Committee as the foundation for the task of finding a pastor. We hope that each of you can attend this meaningful service as we need your continued prayerful support.

The Pastor Search Committee

Sunday, July 18, 5:00 PM, Business Meeting—Important decisions concerning the life of our church are made at our business meetings, every member of Calvary needs to take an active part in these decisions.

On the agenda:

At the last round table meeting with the church, the issue of our denominational connections was discussed. At the upcoming business meeting on July 18th, the Transition Team will recommend a vote on the issue. Because we feel the church should have a voice on this issue, the vote will be

1. Align with SBC
2. Align with CBF
3. Remain dually aligned with SBC and CBF.

Please be in prayer on this issue and be ready to vote at the business meeting.
