Calvary Baptist Church welcomes
Rev. J. Hunter Duncan
Interim Minister of Youth

I was born and raised in Raleigh, NC. I was blessed to be raised in a Christian family with my older sister and brother. At the age of 8 I was baptized at Mt. Vernon Baptist Church. At an early age I began to feel God's call upon my life. At age 15 I went to Fort Caswell with my youth group. There I knew that God was calling me into the ministry.

My wife, Jamye, and I met in youth group at the age of 15 and began dating. We were married 5 years later. We have two beautiful children, Katherine and Cameron. Katherine is 10 years old and Cameron is 8 years old. Katherine is in 5th grade and enjoys drawing and playing piano. Cameron is in 3rd grade and he is bashful when he first meets people, but when he warms up, he is an active, outgoing boy.

Jamye and I both received our undergraduate degrees from Campbell University and both earned our Master's degrees at Gardner-Webb University. My Bachelor's degree is in Computer Information Systems and my Master's degrees are Divinity and Business Administration. Jamye completed her Master of Divinity in Christian Education.

I have worked in churches since I was 20 years old. The first church I served was North Street Baptist Church in Raleigh. There I served as the Minister of Youth and Children. For many years I served bi-vocationally in church while I was employed at AON consulting in Winston Salem. I began full time ministry more than 5 years ago. I was ordained in May of 2006 and I have loved the time God has given me to work full time in ministry.

I earnestly believe God has called me to join your fellowship and we praise God for the opportunity to minister with you.

In Him,
Hunter
